

FORGIVEN FRIDAY

...your death has killed my unbelief - Charles Spurgeon

LIVING WATERS
MINISTRIES

" For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give His Life as a ransom for many." Mark 10:45 (NIV)

i For even the Son of Man;

This is Christ Himself, creator of heaven and earth. He surrendered His Deity for our sake. Christ demonstrates humility and meekness. Let us each evaluate our own ambitions, visions and desires.

ii came not to be served;

Logically, one expects a king to rule and to be served (we have all witnessed how power is abused). Yet Christ did not assert His divine authority on those around Him but remained humble and obedient in His service to the Father.

iii but to serve;

As a servant, Christ assumes his mediatorial office and capacity. He came as a servant of the LORD and He ministered to men, in His prophetic office. Christ served willingly, cheerfully, diligently and faithfully, to complete His primary mission as our Saviour.

iv and to give his life as a ransom for many;

Christ laid down His life for the Children of God, to redeem us from our sin. He died in our place and protected us from the wrath of God, and certain eternal death.

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom 6:23

CHRIST'S + DEATH = LIFE FOR ME

DO I HAVE ETERNAL LIFE IN CHRIST?
